Re: In re Starbrite Properties Corp.
Docket No. 11- 40758 (CEC)

This letter is written to apprise Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. Rachel Blumenfeld, Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein and Gabriel Del Virginia that the undersigned intends to present an order to show cause to the Hon. Carla E. Craig seeking a protective order relevant to a subpoena duces tesum served upon the undersigned by Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. and made returnable on April 3, 2012.

I have previously advised the court by telephone on the afternoon of April 2, 2012

I hope to present the order to show cause at noon or as soon thereafter as counsel and be heard.

I advise the court that I am having difficulty with my electronic filing at the moment so I am presenting the order to show cause in person at that time. As soon as I can straighten matters with Margaret Merritt, the person in charge of electronic filing, I will have order to show cause electronically filed.

I thank the court for its courtesy and cooperation in this regard.

Yours truly,

John W. Russell

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Docket No. 11-41758 (CEC)

Upon the annexed affidavit of John W. Russell, sworn to on April 3, 2012, and the exhibits annexed thereto, let Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. show cause before the Hon. Carla E Craig, Chief Bankruptcy Judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York, at a Motion Term of Said Court on the day of April, 2012 why an order should not be made and entered herein:

1. Entering a protective order directing that John W. Russell, Esq. need not respond to the subpoena duces tecum served by Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C., by Express Mail upon John W. Russell, Esq. for the reasons recited in the succeeding papers submitted in support of this application or motion;

2. Imposing all costs and disbursements attendant to this motion upon Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. and directing that John W. Russell shall have execution therefore; and

3. Granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

MEANWHILE AND PENDING THE DETERMINATION OF THIS MOTION, Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. are restrained and enjoined from any and all efforts to enforce said subpoena or to move for contempt with respect thereto as a result of any failure to produce any documents or items sought therein.

SUFFICIENT CAUSE APPEARING THEREFOR, let service of a copy of this order to show cause, together with copies of the papers upon which it is based, upon Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C., Gabriel Del Virginia, attorney for Starbrite Properties Corp.

Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein, Rachel Blumenfeld, Esq, attorney for Yolande Nicholson by e-mail or by first class mail, deposited into the custody of the United State Postal Service, on or before April , 2012 be deemed good and sufficient service.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT
Docket No. 11- 11-41758 (CEC)

State of New York)

ss.:

County of New York)

John W. Russell, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am an attorney practicing law in the State and City of New York.

2. I have not heretofore appeared in this Chapter 11 proceeding on behalf of any person or party.

3. I have no claim or interest in the outcome of the reorganization proceeding other than the fact that I have represented Starbrite Properties Corp. in several actions related to the bankruptcy proceeding as more fully described in succeeding paragraphs.

4. On March 26, 2012, a subpoena duces tecum arrived at my office issued by Carlos Cuevas of Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. demanding items from my files or records or otherwise in my possession. A Copy of said subpoena is appended hereto as Exhibit A)

5. The document is not signed by the court or the clerk of the court and I am not aware of any prior application seeking leave of the court to conduct third party discovery or any order of this court granting such application.

6. On April 2, 2012, I e-mailed a letter to Carlos Cuevas of Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. stating objections thereto (Exhibit B) and received the following response (Exhibit C).

7. It is clear that there can be no resolution if the issues absent court intervention.

8. In addition to the reasons stated in my letter, I add the following objections:

a) This subpoena essentially asks that Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. be permitted rummage through my entire office and is apparently designed to interfere with an attorney-client relationship I may have with the client with whom he has his issues

b) Further, there are an unknown number of documents this blunderbuss subpoena which I would be required to canvass to categorize, copy and register in a privilege log. This requires hours of time and effort.

c) The court will note that Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. has not attempted to describe any documents with the slightest degree of particularity or to state the issues upon which evidence is sought and, in fact, by its e-mail response, intentionally refuses to do so. The subpoena is plainly a fishing expedition.

d) The intent to make compliance as great a burden upon the recipient as possible. Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. well know that I am a sole practitioner in every sense, with no support staff to assist me, carry a full litigation schedule and suffer the after-effects of a stroke on September 3, 2011.

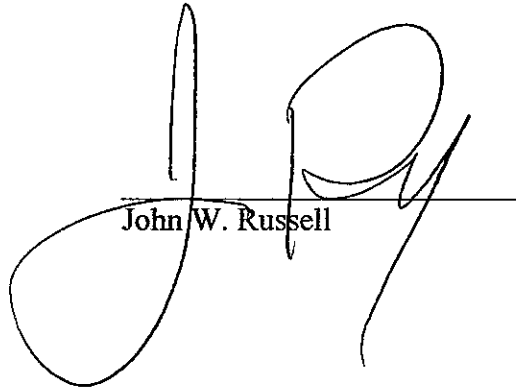

e) Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. makes no response to the argument that it is already in possession of certain documents it now seeks to "discover" or that a number of them are available from the records of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

f) It does not assert how these documents are suddenly relevant and necessary when they were apparently never relevant and necessary during the year or more that Cuevas & Greenwald, P.C. represented Starbrite Properties Corp.

g) If the court is to direct production of any documents or the preparation of a "privilege log, the hearing or proceeding to which they are alleged to be relevant should. adjourned 30 days.

h) Finally, I note that this is Christian Holy Week and Jewish Passover week.

WHEREFORE, I ask that the motion for a protective order be granted in all respects.

John W. Russell

Re: In re: Starbrite Properties Corp.
Case No. 11-40758 (CEC)

Dear Mr Cuevas:

This letter is written to express my objection to the purported subpoena duces tecum received my office on March 26, 2012 by mail, along with Cuevas & Greenwald check number 1015 in the amount of $50.00.

First, I note that the purported subpoena was not signed by a judge or magistrate nor was the seal of the clerk of the court affixed thereto.

Second, Document Requests Nos. 1 through 6 are, on their face, overbroad and non-specific.

Third, all Document Requests, except those pertaining to communications to which you were a recipient, are privileged as they refer to communications with my clients, William Cordero, Caliente Café, Restaurant & Bar, Inc. or Starbrite Properties Corp., now known as Mi Candela, Inc. or which include matters involving the legal strategies of said clients.

Third, as to ones where you were included as counsel or otherwise as a recipient, you already are in possession of them and production by subpoena would be duplicative, vexatious and unnecessary.

Fourth, many requested documents either have been previously provided to your office or are available from public records.

Fifth, if compliance were deemed appropriate, I would need a larger amount of time to review the records referenced than provided.

Ex B

Accordingly, I ask that the subpoena be withdrawn and the aforementioned check 1015 will be returned to you.

If the subpoena is not withdrawn or we cannot otherwise reach an accord on the issues, it is my intention to submit an order to show cause on or before April 4, 2012 to quash said subpoena, for reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of said motion and other relief. That is the earliest date upon which I can address this matter before the court.

Yours truly,

John W. Russell

Dear Mr. Russell:

This responds to your letter we received today.

First, I note that the purported subpoena was not signed by a judge or magistrate nor was the seal of the clerk of the court affixed thereto.

The subpoena need not be issued by the Court or its Clerk. Fed.R.Civ.P. R. 45(a)(3), made applicable to this case by Fed.R.Bankr.P. R. 9016, provides:

(3) Issued by Whom.

The clerk must issue a subpoena, signed but otherwise in blank, to a party who requests it. That party must complete it before service. An attorney also may issue and sign a subpoena as an officer of:

(A) a court in which the attorney is authorized to practice; or

(B) a court for a district where a deposition is to be taken or production is to be made, if the attorney is authorized to practice in the court where the action is pending. (Emphasis Supplied)

See also, 9A Charles Alan Wright, Arthur R. Miller, Mary Kay Kane & Richard Marcus, Federal Practice & Procedure Section 2453 (3rd ed. 2011). A court in the Eastern District of New York has stated:

Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that an attorney, as an officer of the court, may issue a subpoena on behalf of a court in which the attorney is authorized to practice, or for a court in a district in which a document production is compelled by the subpoena. Fed.R.Civ.P. 45(a)(3). Valid attorney-issued subpoenas under Rule 45(a)(3) operate as enforceable mandates of the court on whose behalf they are served. See, e.g., Advisory Committee Notes, 1991 Amendment to Fed.R.Civ.P. 45; Board of Governors of Federal Reserve System v. Pharaon, 140 F.R.D. 634, 641-42 (S.D.N.Y.1991). Calabro v. Stone, 224 F.R.D. 532, 533 E.D.N.Y.,2004.

Second, Document Requests Nos. 1 through 6 are, on their face, overbroad and non-specific.

You can and must still respond to the extent you understand the request and have documents. Your objection is noted to the extent you do not comply with the subpoena.

Third, all Document Requests, except those pertaining to communications to which you were a recipient, are privileged as they refer to communications with my clients, William Cordero, Caliente Café, Restaurant & Bar, Inc. or Starbrite Properties Corp., now known as Mi Candela, Inc. or which include matters involving the legal strategies of said clients.

If documents are subject to a privilege, you may not assert a blanket objection. You are required to produce a privilege log. Also, there are issues whether the privilege even exists or has been waived. The attorney-client privilege applies to communications of the client to the attorney concerning prior wrong-doing, but not to on-going or prospective fraud, crime or torts. See, e.g., U.S. v. Sabbeth, 34 F. Supp. 2d 144 (E.D. N.Y. 1999). We also believe that the "crime - fraud" exception to the attorney-client privilege prevails here. See, In re Enron Corp., 349 B.R. 115, 127, (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 2006).

Third, as to ones where you were included [sic] as counsel or otherwise as a recipient, you already are in possession of them and production by subpoena would be duplicative, vexatious and unnecessary.

EXC

Appreciate your thought. However, still not a basis for objection here.

Fourth, many requested documents either have been previously provided to your office or are available from public records.

Appreciate your thought. However, still not a basis for objection here. Also, you need to identify what requests you're referring to.

Fifth, if compliance were deemed appropriate, I would need a larger amount of time to review the records referenced than provided.

I doubt that. Nevertheless, how much additional time would you require? Maybe we can accommodate you.

There are six document requests that go directly to your representation of Mr. Cordero in Caliente Cab Restaurant Co., Inc. v. Caliente Cafe Restaurant & Bar, Inc. and Cordero 11 Civ. 327 (RJD). The document requests are not overly broad. For example, we are requesting the production of all correspondence with Mr. Rothstein; all correspondence concerning the Permanent Injunction and Judgment of Infringement on Consent. We are also seeking all correspondence with Mr. Cordero concerning Caliente Cab Restaurant Co., Inc. v. Caliente Cafe Restaurant & Bar, Inc. and Cordero 11 Civ. 327 (RJD). Under United States v. Richard Roe, Inc., 68 F.3d 38 (2nd Cir. 1995)(crime-fraud exception to attorney-client privilege) we are entitled to review your correspondence with Mr. Cordero.

We are requesting that you comply with the subpoena so that we will not have to move for contempt. Carlos Cuevas & Wayne Greenwald
